Never was there a time in my life that I didn't know beyond a shadow of a doubt that my granddaddy loved me. He taught me how to operate equipment t, garden, to grill with charcoal, and many other lessons such as to be a hard worker. He may have faced giants in his life, we all do, but on March 11th he asked Jesus in his life and he was truly set free from all of that. We had alot of great times throughout life but this last 5 months we absolutely had a bawl!

I worked with Bussey when I was younger. New starting out with equipment and he taught be a lot. Still have a set of cat keys he gave me. Good man and great operator.
