Oh my precious daddy, My heart is so crushed! I love & already miss you so very much. You have been the absolute very best Daddy, God blessed me greatly when he chose you to be my father.. He blessed me with the absolute greatest parents! Thank you for loving & spoiling me, for teaching me about Jesus, for leading me by example. , For teaching me to always plead the Blood of Jesus over myself and those I love for protection, to trust HIM with all of my heart. Thank you for always being my biggest encourager, protector, and for EVERYTHING you've ever done for me, every sacrifice you ever made for me, It would take me through eternity to list it all. Thank you for always being so proud of me and making that known to everyone you met. YOU have been my hero and always will be. I will always be "Daddy's Little Girl." I'm thankful that God took you HOME peacefully, that you just went to sleep and woke up in Heaven, that you've received your ultimate healing and promotion, but my heart is so broken, I can't stop the tears from flowing because I love & miss you so much. I remember you going to moms grave and sitting for hours everyday, coming home and saying you just wanted to go HOME and be with her and Jesus. If only I could have a glimpse of all of you there. To have seen you when you first saw Jesus, mom, your parents and so many others that you've loved and missed for so long. I thank God for his faithfulness, he blessed me with 8 years with you after you had the stroke when doctors were very grim about your prognosis, and again when you had the artery bleed last June, he gave me 8 more months with you after that, even your doctors said you had a "higher power" looking out for you and we were able to tell them about our God through it all. God wants you with him now and I know you're rejoicing in HIS presence. I believe Jesus will be returning for us very soon, and I promise you I will see you in Heaven! I'm so blessed and thankful to be your daughter. I love & miss you so very much!!!!

I miss you SO much already Pops!!! You were there in the hospital with us when we lost my sister, Tanya. You and my Sis, started Tanya's Raiders, in honor of her. When I lost my dad, in my opinion, at that time, I felt like you were the only one who really believed that I could get a job at Monsanto and move to Michigan. You taught me how to talk to people. You told me everyone loves to talk about themselves and their hobbies. 🤔 I loved talking to you and we could talk for hours. I Miss that 😭
